

Looking At Your Environment

This exercise could be applied to any structure, room, or even a neighborhood. The answers are your opinions. The questions are leads for looking at things a little differently, and doing so to see them in fresh ways and to learn new things about them.

1. The entrance to (environment) _____ is
 - a. inviting
 - b. threatening
 - c. intriguing
 - d. confusing
 - e. other – (own words)
2. The dominant color is _____.
3. The dominant sound is _____.
4. It smells like _____.
5. The most things I see in this environment are _____.
6. The most obvious object I see in the environment is _____.
7. The purpose of this environment appears to be _____.
8. The most powerful object or force in this environment is _____.
9. Something I would like to add to this environment is _____.
10. This environment is similar to _____ (an animal) because _____.
11. This environment is similar to _____ (a machine) because _____.

12. The humor in this environment is evident by _____.
13. The sadness in this environment stems from _____.
14. This environment makes me feel _____.
15. The most comfortable place in this environment is _____ and the least comfortable place is _____.
16. If I could make the least comfortable place more comfortable, then I would
_____.
17. The most used word or phrase in this environment is _____.
18. The most important element (human or non-human) in this environment is
_____.
19. The one irreplaceable thing in this environment is _____.
20. If I were to describe this environment in one word definitions that would characterize this place, then they would be (circle one in each pair):
- a. soft or hard
 - b. old or new
 - c. rich or poor
 - d. big or small
 - e. male or female
 - f. fast or slow
 - g. safe or dangerous
 - h. predator or prey
 - i. accepting or judging
 - j. alive or dead
 - k. childish or mature